GDPR

The NBA will record your name, address and contact details and will be held electronically by the Membership Officer. The details will be used for organising NBA leagues/knockouts and will be made available to your team, and others in the leagues/knockouts you are playing in so they may contact you to arrange/rearrange matches. The NBA will also use your details for circulating the newsletter and other relevant information such as AGM dates. Your personal data will only be shared with Bowls Guernsey Association as part of the NBA's membership with the BGA. Your details will be updated each season and will be permanently deleted two years after you cease to be a member of the NBA (unless you are an honorary member). The committee confirm your details will not be used for any non-NBA related reason. Our Data Protection policy is available within the NBA clubhouse and on our website: www.northbowls.com

Northern Bowls Association

Minimum jack length - 23m

Any bowl that falls in the ditch without touching the Jack is a dead bowl and MUST be removed from the rink

In a triples team only the number two player should call the shots at the head. The other team player should give them space. Unless agreed with the other team prior to the game starting

When marking a singles game:

1. Carry a chalk and measure
2. Try not to move around
3. Only give facts not advice (you can't tell someone which hand to play)
4. If you are unsure who's holding then say you think its a measure. The players have the right to visit the head
5. Ideally stand a yard to two yards diagonally behind the jack

The front of the mat should be a minimum of 2m from the ditch

Having played your shot, you should then remain behind the player who is about to bowl

Once your team's bowl stops, the rink and the head is no longer yours. You MUST allow the other to team to look at the head and play their bowl
